Reverend Dr. Benjamin Kevin Smalls of Hope United Methodist Church of Southfield offered the following invocation: Eternal God, we do give You thanks for this day. We thank You for an opportunity, yet again, to come and perfect the work that is before us.

Would You now give an extra dose of wisdom, compassion, and sensitivity to this distinguished group of leaders who come to give of themselves? Will You, O Lord, bless the work of their hands and their thoughts and utilize their unity as well as their differences in a way that might strengthen and perfect the work that is theirs?

And so, for the day and the hours that are yet to come, we commend these, Your people, to You in such a marvelous way that we will continue to see crooked places straight and rough places plain. I lift up the state of Michigan and all the areas that are represented herein.

We will give You all the honor and the glory that we know, and we say: Amen.

The President, Lieutenant Governor Calley, led the members of the Senate in recital of the Pledge of Allegiance.

Whereas, Approximately 160,000 Chaldeans reside in Michigan, the largest population outside of the Middle East; and

Whereas, The Chaldean population began immigrating to America during the 1920's for better economic, religious, and political freedom, bringing with them a strong work ethic which continues to positively add to the growth of Michigan through the establishment of 20,000 Chaldean-owned businesses throughout Michigan; and
